LOOK OUT FOR WEAVER.

The man who neglects to read the political signs of the times, says the Sacramento Bee, and who contents himself with shutting one eye and glancing at the old road boards, can certainly see nothing of the stupendous changes in parties going on all around. Those who perceive and keep silence thereon, letting the party to which they profess to belong snore on in fancied security, are nothing more than sunshine friends, who will be eager to rush under cover when the storms set in. The Bee believes in pointing out dangers, not in concealing them. The danger to both the old parties is traveling westward now, making a great noise and clatter on its way, and its name is James B. Weaver. It is not the man himself who is so dangerous, were it not for the propelling force which is behind him. He is the battering ram, manned by a new, a vigorous, a growing party, and willing hands are dashing him with tremendous force against the old party walls.

Let the Republicans make no mistake about this new engine of political warfare. Let them not fancy that it is a mere toy, swinging carelessly back and forth, and only striking the time-honored barriers with insignificant taps. Watch the thousands who have rallied to help him in his assaults throughout Colorado. Wait until he gets in Nevada and see the dents he will make in the old political creeds there, particularly in the Republican party. Make no mistake as to his strength in Oregon, for thousands there are ready to help him in his assaults. Do not delude yourselves into the belief that he will have no followers here in Sacramento. The grip of the Republican party is loosening on the workers, and many of the toilers in the great railroad shops are more than likely to cast their political fortunes this year with the new organization.

The cause of it is not far to seek. None could be so blind as not to see the hand of monopoly all over the Minneapolis Convention. The published statements of great organs and leaders of the party that "the nominations were especially pleasing to the bankers" was the last straw to break the faith in the party of men who had pinned their trust to it through thick and thin.

RELIEF NEAR AT HAND.

The Austin Reveille, a staunch Republican paper, insists that the Republican State Convention shall nominate the Silver party electors. It says:

"Congress is on the eve of adjournment, and the nation will give a sigh of relief when its parliamentarians have sought recreation in Europe, the Adirondacks or some other place. Its session has been occupied by arguments, pro and con, on almost every subject, and its result has been to defeat silver legislation, and without avail to damage the tariff law. It was as extravagant as the previous purported 'billion-dollar Congress,' and the fact is evident it was not half as much as it intended to be. Though for more than a decade of years the party in majority in the House have denounced in every State and National platform the Republican party for the infamous act of demoralizing the white metal in 1873, with its majority of one hundred and forty-eight in the House, it failed to rectify the wrong. It is six of one and half a dozen of the other, and we are in favor of the Republican State Convention endorsing the electors of the People's party."

THE REPUBLICAN PRIMARY PLEDGE.

The Republican pledge for voters at the primaries, adopted by the State Central Committee at Virginia City Saturday, is probably as mild a declaration as could be expected. It pledges no one to support the nominees of the party, only requiring that they acknowledge themselves to be Republicans and are in favor of the free coinage of silver at the present ratio of 16 to 1.

It is not probable that the last clause will prevent any one who desires from voting, and as such cannot be said to be a part of the true test. It is simply a little sugar coat laid, or more properly speaking, a silver lining to cover up the core. The question of the pledge is: Are you a Republican? If so, cast your ballot and acquiesce among other things in the past and present attitude of the Republican party on the silver question and give it your moral and political support.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, August 1.—The House today adopted a resolution extending till August 4th the appropriations of the last Sundry Civil bill. Before the passage of the resolution there was a spicy debate. Holman declared that the gentleman from Illinois, Hopkins, was willing to stop the wheels of legislation in order to compel the House to give $5,000,000 to a corporation in Chicago.

Reed of Maine replied. He said that with a Democratic majority of more than 140, of which Holman was a factional leader, the House had stopped the business of the Government, and now Holman was endeavoring to charge this stoppage on somebody else. He, Holman, had deliberately blocked the wheels of business. The World's Fair legislation had received the sanction of the Senate without regard to party further than that. It had the sanction of the Democratic House and there was nothing against it but a miserable technicality that some gentleman had thought the World's Fair matter ought not to be on the Appropriation bill yet the gentleman from Indiana had the courage to stand up before the House and country and charge that in a House of 140 Democratic majority the stopping public business by a member of the minority.

Cummings of New York declared that the wheels of Government were stopped by Hopkins. The latter retorted that next to Holman Cummings was the most responsible for the condition in which the House found itself to-day.

McMillan of Tennessee asserted that the gentleman from Illinois had virtually said to the House: "You either give that $5,000,000 to the World's Fair or you don't get your Sundry Civil bill."

The House then adjourned.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, August 1.—The Senate passed resolutions extending last year's appropriations until next Thursday without division.

Speeches on the tariff were delivered by Hawley and Hiseock, advocating protection, also a statement by Vest respecting the profits of the Arlington woolen mills. Vest had information, he said, that the company in 1891 paid a dividend of 50 per cent, and that there had been troubles and strikes among the workmen. Both of these assertions were characterized as absolutely false in a letter to Allison from Secretary Whitman of the Arlington Co. Vest undertook to prove from Whitman's own report to the directors that his, Vest's, original assertion was practically true.

A resolution for the appointment of a committee as to the employment of Pinkerton detectives was reported back and went over without action.

REPRESENTATIVE COBB NOT DRUNK.

WASHINGTON, August 1.—The special committee appointed to investigate the charges of drunkenness against members of the House resumed its session this morning, and many witnesses testified that in their opinion Representative Cobb of Alabama was not drunk when he delivered his argument in the Noyes-Rockwell election contest, the witnesses generally testifying that Cobb was suffering from exhaustion, an incident to his delivery when in poor health or of a long speech marked by many interruptions and much badgering. Byrum testified that the members frequently took bouillon, coffee and other stimulants during long continued arguments. It is likely that Simpson of Kansas will file the minority report in behalf of his fellow Alliance member, Watson of Georgia, who made the charges, it being practically assured that the majority will at least make some strictures on Watson.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT HERSELF.

EUREKA, Or., August 1.—The news of the fatal shooting of Mrs. C. D. Maxwell near Elmhurst Saturday has reached here. Mrs. Maxwell had quarreled with her husband, from whom she recently separated. J. H. Yates, a brother of Mr. Maxwell, interfered in her behalf and the husband attempted to draw a pistol. Mrs. Maxwell went to the house to get a shotgun for her brother. In taking down the gun it was discharged and the contents entered Mrs. Maxwell's left side.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

ST. LOUIS, August 1.—It is reported here that the limited east-bound passenger, on the Big Four, which left here at 9 p. m. collided with a freight train at Edwardsville, Ill. The engineer and fireman were killed. A large number of passengers were injured some fatally.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

WASHINGTON, August 1.—The Democrats of the House held a caucus to-night for the purpose, if possible, of agreeing upon some plan by which the present deadlock may be broken and the adjournment of Congress be brought about. Several resolutions were presented, one of them being in effect that a vote on the separate World's Fair bill be had on the 7th of December next, and that but three amendments shall be in order. This was finally carried and the caucus adjourned. The result was received with manifestations of displeasure by the World's Fair people and expressions of feeling between the two sides had become quite warm at the close of the caucus.

PUBLIC DEBT STATEMENT.

WASHINGTON, August 1.—The public debt statement for July shows an aggregate of interest and non-interest bearing debt of $967,378,935, a decrease during the month of $839,005. The aggregate of debt, including certificates and Treasury notes, is $1,587,054,738. Aggregate cash in the Treasury $783,979,263. Cash balance in the Treasury $127,050,286, an increase of $357,909.

A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

PORTLAND, Or., August 1.—At 8.30 to-night a fire broke out on the third floor of Whittier, Fuller & Co's paint and oil store on Front street, and at 9 p. m. threatened to destroy the entire block. A four-story brick, 200 by 100 feet, occupied by Wadhams & Co., wholesale grocers, Frank Bros., agricultural implement dealers, and Lang & Co. The loss may reach half a million.

CAMPAIGN SONG.

Tune—"Hold the Fort."
Ho! my comrades, see the signal
Waving in the sky;
Weaver and Field are now appearing,
Victory is nigh.
CHORUS.
Hold the fort, for we are coming,
Justice signals still;
Wave the answer back to Weaver,
You bet, Nevada will.
See the mighty host advancing,
Bristling on;
Mighty men around us falling;
Courage almost gone.
CHORUS.
See the glorious banner waving,
Bear the bugle's blast;
In our leader's cause we'll triumph
Over every foe.
CHORUS.
Pierce and long the battle rages,
But our help is near;
O'er our common Great Commander,
Cheer for Weaver cheer!
CHORUS.

McGill, T. Coffin, proxy 18 votes.

The call offered by Mr. Wallace for a State ticket without Presidential electors received the following vote: Eureka, Thomas Wren, T. M. Hittman, C. O. Wallace, proxy; B. Gutman, W. E. Sharon; Esmeralda, S. A. Knapp, T. J. Harrington, P. M. Bowler, proxy; Humboldt, J. R. Harvey, C. O. Powning, proxy; Lander, J. A. Blossom, J. R. Williamson, F. O. Lord, proxy; J. R. Shaw; Storey, F. C. Lord, C. E. Mack, proxy, W. E. Sharon, Con. Abern, Wm. Murrey, F. C. Lord, proxy; Washoe, Wm. Thomson, 14 votes.

NEVERED A VAIN.

While attempting to break the handle out of an old sled across an arroyo yesterday a piece of steel flew up, striking A. Nelson in the arm and severing the radial nerve. The blood from the wound spurting out in quite a stream and caused him to become very weak before it was dressed by Dr. Phillips. While not serious the accident will prevent his doing any work with the arm for some days.

DAMAGES FOR STEALING A PRETTY FACE.

Mrs. Bonnet, of the Palais Royal, who prosecuted a biscuit maker for reproducing her portrait in garish colors on the labels of his boxes, has won her case, and in addition to the suppression of the obnoxious advertisement has obtained damages and the insertion of the sentence in several papers at the defendant's expense.—Galignani Messenger.

A RACING YACHT'S EXPERIENCE.

Those who are interested in yachting news will remember how many victories were won last year by the English yacht Windfall, with Mrs. Schenley as skipper. The yacht changed hands this season, the skipper is a man, and in its first race the Windfall was obliged to take second place.—Exchange.

Mrs. Pendleton in attempting to alight from a moving train yesterday morning, fell to the sidewalk striking heavily upon her face and narrowly escaped rolling under the cars. She sustained a number of bad bruises, but fortunately was not seriously hurt.

The new road to Lake Tahoe is completed to Incline. Work will immediately be done to open it to Carnelian Springs where it will connect with the Tahoe City and Truckee roads so that one can then go to nearly any point on the lake from Reno by carriage.

Colonel E. F. Ritter of Indianapolis, who was Chairman of the National Convention of Cincinnati and is now a member of the Executive Committee of the Prohibitionist party, will address the people of Reno on the political issues of the day on Monday evening, August 15. Colonel Ritter is the Chairman of the committee appointed to notify General Bidwell of his nomination as President. He is said to be a very able and eloquent speaker.

Advertised Letters.

Following is a list of letters remaining unclaimed for in the Reno, Nevada, Post-office August 1, 1892:

Bronton, Rev John Kellam, Henry Brown, J. E. Lemieux, E. A. Ball, James Lowell, M. Douglas, Henry C. Luntell, G. D. Floyd, James Linton, W. J. Goodwin, W. A. Norman, J. J. Gung, Leitch Schinanswski, Hyman Solva, Antonio-2 Smith, Mrs Laura M. Galloway, G. B. Summers, I. H. Gile, J. H. Sullivan, Mrs Dava Goddard, C. Hunter, Wm. Wilmat, James Hunsay, Mrs L. S. Welch, Thomas Jones, E. H. Vandervoest, A. L. E. P. KAUBS, F. M.

Move Along.

don't stand idle. It is the man who keeps moving that generally succeeds in life. You can't help moving on when taking Simmons Liver Regulator. It cleanses the system from all poison and sends the blood through the veins at a good round pace. The Regulator is the best insurance policy against indigestion and dyspepsia. Nothing malicious about Simmons Liver Regulator.

A Handsome Gift.

Theodore Winters, President of the State Agricultural Society, has donated twelve hundred chairs to be placed in the grand stand at the fair grounds. The old wooden benches will be removed, and every one who hereafter experiences the added comfort of them can return thanks to the generosity of Mr. Winters.

A Donation.

The Park fund became exhausted a month ago and in order to meet the bills that had been contracted the Park Commissioner donated $100 to the fund. Yesterday, at the request of the Commissioner another $100 was donated to the fund by Mr. Newlands, so that other necessary work can be performed.

BACK FROM PYRAMID.

Dr. Phillips and Sam Durkee were all of the gay party of bicyclists who went to Pyramid Lake Saturday to return yesterday on skedaddle time. The remainder are still at the lake, encumbered with an enormous catch of fish. The trip to the lake was made without accident of any kind, the ambulance following, only being used as a resting carriage for the less ambitious ones, who were disposed, when they got tired, to sacrifice the glory of going through all the way on their wheel to the demands of the flesh, trusting to cover over the weakness to their friends by a sufficient draft upon the flexibility of their versatility.

Dr. Phillips and Mr. Durkee arrived at the Willows Saturday at 12 o'clock, making the trip of 40 miles across the sands in eight hours. The van guard came in two hours later. Mr. Osburn has the honor of catching the largest fish, which was considerably larger than the boat he was in, and fearing to swamp everything and lower the lake to a dangerous extent by taking him out, he felt it a christian duty to let him go. It is fair to state, however, that Mr. Osburn was alone when this fish was caught.

Prof. Lewers succeeded in impaling a sage hen upon a geometrical protractor, and will have the bird stuffed and placed in the University Museum as a trophy. Prof. Wilson is the proud victor in an affair in which he succeeded in downing, at considerable peril, a Pyramid Lake mosquito and eating it in a croaker box. While sitting unconsciously upon the same croaker box at the breakfast table the next morning Mr. Hollingsworth was almost fatally injured by being impaled upon its bill. The insect had to be dispatched before he could be rescued.

The other adventures of this remarkable party will more fully appear in a book which Mrs. Wilson is writing and which will be sold only by subscription. They expect to return to-day.

Death of S. C. Wright.

Superintendent S. C. Wright of the Carson mint, after a lingering illness, died at Carson City yesterday morning. Deceased was one of the oldest and best known citizens of Nevada, and leaves a host of friends to regret his untimely passing away. He leaves a wife and two sons and a step-daughter to mourn his loss.

Deceased was born in Syracuse, New York, April 3, 1831. While still a lad, he came to the Pacific Coast and located at Downsville, Cal., where he remained until he came to Carson some time in the early sixties. He represented Ormsby county in the Assembly during the session of 1869, and during the same year was appointed Receiver of the U. S. Land Office at Carson a position which he held until the administration of Cleveland in 1885. On July 1, 1889, by appointment of President Harrison, he was made Superintendent of the Carson mint, which position he held at the time of his death.

Excursion to Lake Tahoe.

Manager Calok of Carnelian Springs Lake Tahoe, is in town arranging for an excursion from Reno to that popular Summer resort, to leave here next Thursday and return a week later. The round trip, including fare both ways, board and lodging at the hotel and a trip on the steamer Tod Goodwin, around the lake, is only $14. Mr. Quick had secured a large number of names up to last evening and quite a large party will probably make the excursion. The Teachers' Retreat, under charge of Prof. Monroe and assistants, including Prof. Dickinson, a brother of Anna Dickinson, of anti-slavery fame, is in session, and those who attend are assured of a delightful time. Any one wishing to go should leave their names with either Mr. Currier, Mr. Norcross or W. A. Phillips before to-morrow noon.

Athletic Club.

The members of the Reno Athletic Club are requested to be at the Pavilion on Tuesday and Thursday evenings of this week. Important business is to be transacted.

A. L. HELMOLD, Captain.
